IN HONOR OF

Elizabeth Orman

For 30 years of dedication to the youth of Jackson County
... for the help, understanding, and devotion to the students of EHS for the past 15 years

IN TRIBUTE TO

Hoyt L. Chapman

. . . for 4 years of caring for, understanding, and helping the students and faculty of Edna High . . . for being a principal, but more important . . . for being a friend.

DEDICATED TO CAROLYN BARRON

For the endless hours of time and talent she has devoted to the students and programs of EHS, we dedicate this edition of the Roundup.

The Roundup Staff

Seniors

Senior Officers

The Senior Class was very busy looking forward to graduation! This class was the first to have a choice of Eng. IV or Eng. 12. It seemed as if the class of '77 was always getting their plans changed. A Senior dance, a car wash and a bake sale were the money raising events for the Seniors.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Active, noticeable, enthusiastic - are all descriptive of the Freshman Class. Getting involved in all levels of activities has marked a notable year for this class. Mrs. McClung and the officers have worked hard to find a money raising project. These students promise three more productive years at EHS.

STUDENT COUNCIL

A busy calendar kept the Student Council moving this year. In addition the usual projects of Homecoming Assemblies, Lance machine, football programs, hall decorations, Secret Pals, summer workshop, leadership training, Mid-Winter workshop and Community Blood Drives. The Council hosted the Fall District Convention, successfully ran for Dist. Pres. School for 77-78 and worked hard at State Convention. Sue Brock won third place in Scrapbook competition at state. The Council also had the sad job of saying goodbye to Coach Cate after his four years of special help to the S.C.

VOCATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CLUB

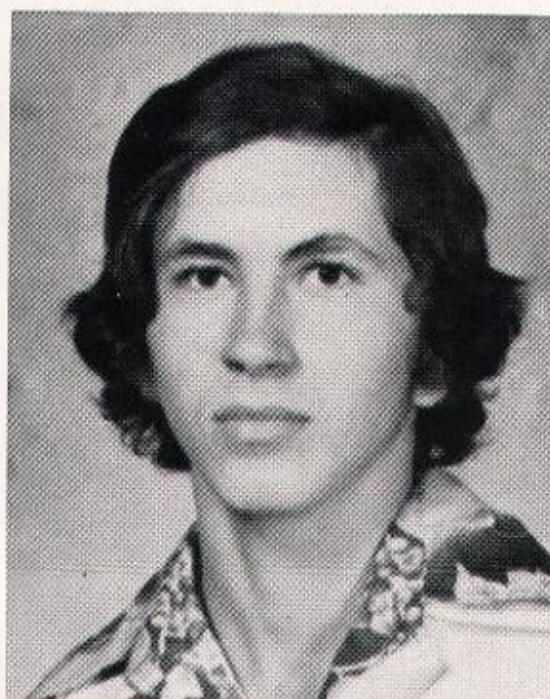

VICA is better known on campus as Building Trades. These young men work on remodeling and building jobs all over town. Mr. Paul Robles is the very able instructor. Odell Hitt advanced to state in skills contest, and the corner cabinet entered by the club won a high rank in state. Preston Atkinson received the Golden Hammer Award presented by the Edna Lumber Company.

CHOIR

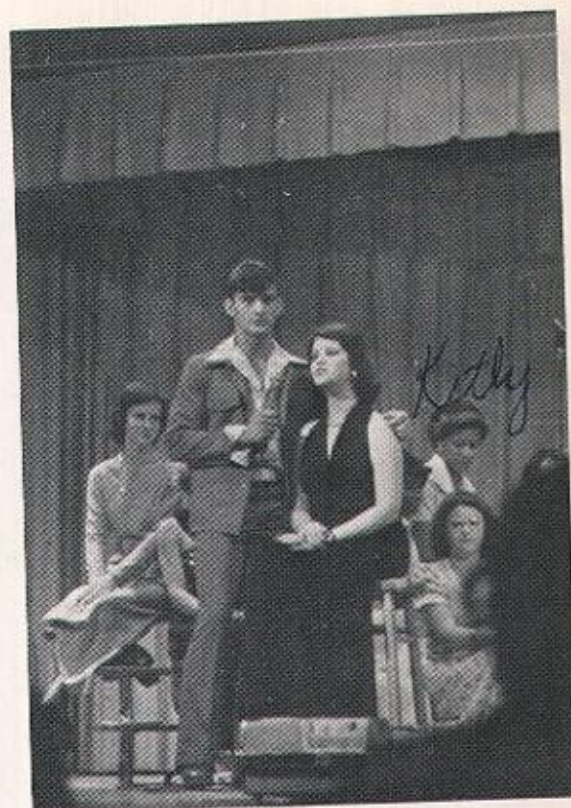

The Edna High School Choir made many pleasant memories for everyone this year. A busy year of hard work marked this first year - in many - for a choir, Mrs. Wright directed the choir. Besides singing in contest and several concerts the choir raised funds for "uniforms" by selling fruit. The choir worked hard as a group with several individuals also working hard in solo work.

HOMECOMING

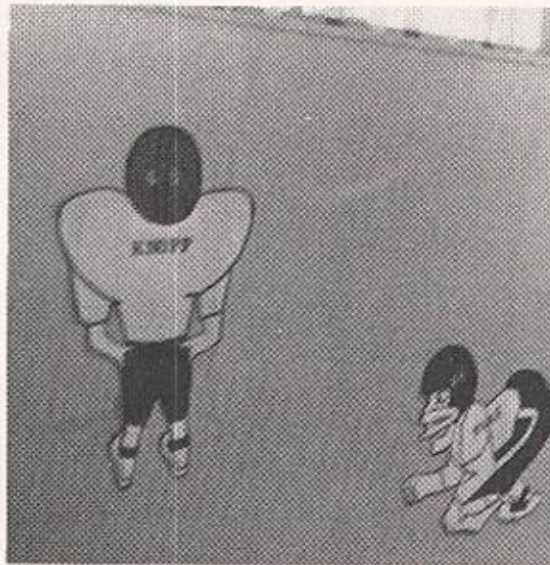

The activities for Homecoming 1976 were fun in spite of the weather. A first - at least in recent years - was a homecoming parade. Winners were selected in two divisions. Hall decorating contest was won by the Junior class, with the Freshman taking second. All of the decorations were exciting and well done. The weather was cold and wet but spirits were high as the cowboys won an impressive victory over the Hitchcock team! A good group attended the dance with music provided by DIALOGG.

FACULTY FOLLIES

The National Honor Society pleased the crowd with presentation of the Faculty Follies on Jan. 14, 1977. Teachers from all schools and administrators helped provide a variety of skits and musical talent. Here we picture only a few of the fun moments. Sorry we can't add the music and words.

Of Edna High we love so dear,
We lift our voices free of fear,
Preparing for our future years,
With friendships true made here,
To our Cowboys brave who are fighting for
Our colors of white and blue,
For faith and hope and loyalty,
We pledge ourselves to you.

DRAMA CLUB PRODUCTIONS

On Feb. 3rd and Feb. 7th, 1977 the EHS Drama Club presented four one-act plays - YES MEANS NO; JUST ANOTHER DAY; OF POEMS, YOUTH AND SPRING and RISE AND SHINE. These plays involved most of the Drama Club members and were well attended. The UIL One-Act Play was a statement about prejudice. SOME OF MY BEST FRIENDS ARE SMITHS was presented in Edna on March 17 and Sweeny on March 22. Yolanda Hernandez and Susan Jett made Hon. Men. Cast. The seniors of '77 will be missed by the Drama Group.

FANTASY DAY

May 6, was Student Council Special Event Day - FANTASY DAY. The Junior class won the competition in various spirited round of events. The judges had a difficult time selecting winners for the cash prizes in the costume contest. The only thing recognizable about Gary Woodring was his blue eyes! Giant crayolas, turtles, chefs, dolls, spiders, bandits, trappers, pop stars, even Kathryn Hepburn, roamed the halls of EHS!

Dicky - one of the lovely people of the day.

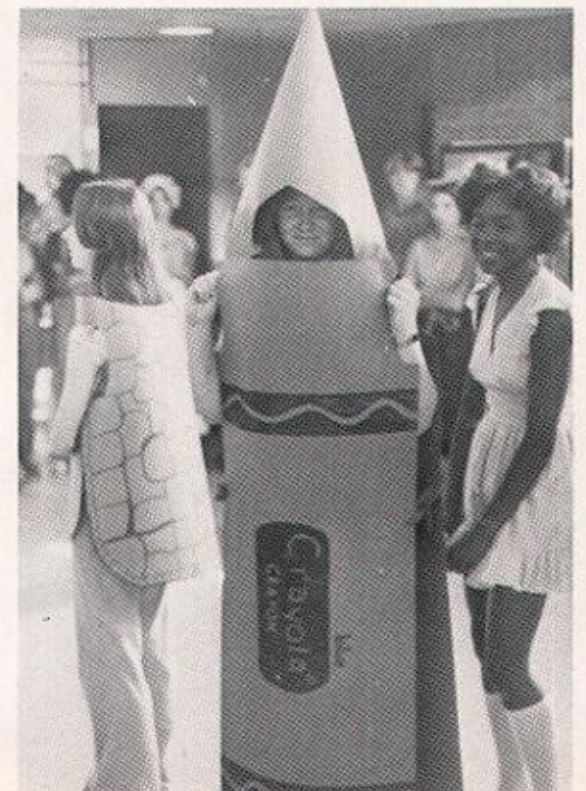

Susan "Pooh," Mary Lou, and Kitty, too.

Viewing the fantasies were fun also.

The day proved to be a very interesting one.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

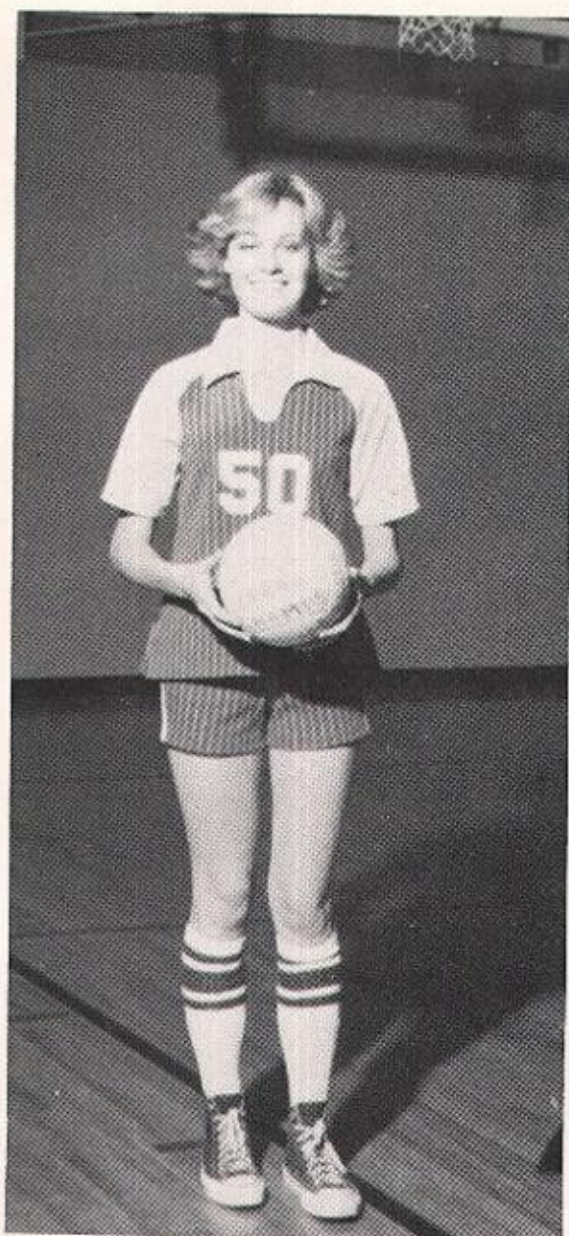

Spike it! Weise.

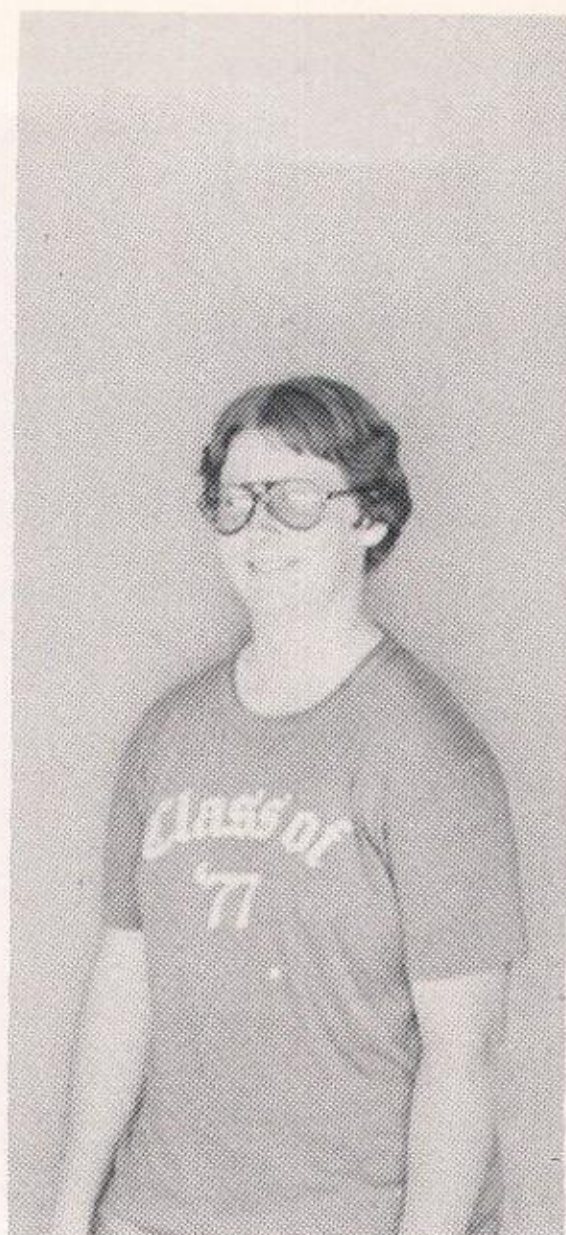

A spirited, exciting season marked the year for the Zone Champions! The Cowgirls won their tournament! The team honored two fans - Mrs. Ouida Mauritz and Mrs. Ruth Barron by presenting them with Honorary Team Memberships. A good crowd followed the team through the exciting season. GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Varsity Girls Basketball team had a year of ups and downs. Moments of glory included the first place at Austwell tournament with Gwen and Prim making all tournament and Pat receiving the "Hustle" award. District play had more downs than ups. The Junior Varsity and Freshmen girls also had their ups and downs. The Varsity will lose some outstanding players but the Cowgirls will also have much talent returning.

Regional qualifiers were Barbara Gomez in the mile run, Lisa Burgess in the 80 yard hurdles, and Beth Hasdorff in the 880 yard run. We know that not everyone got pictured in track! Sorry!

TENNIS

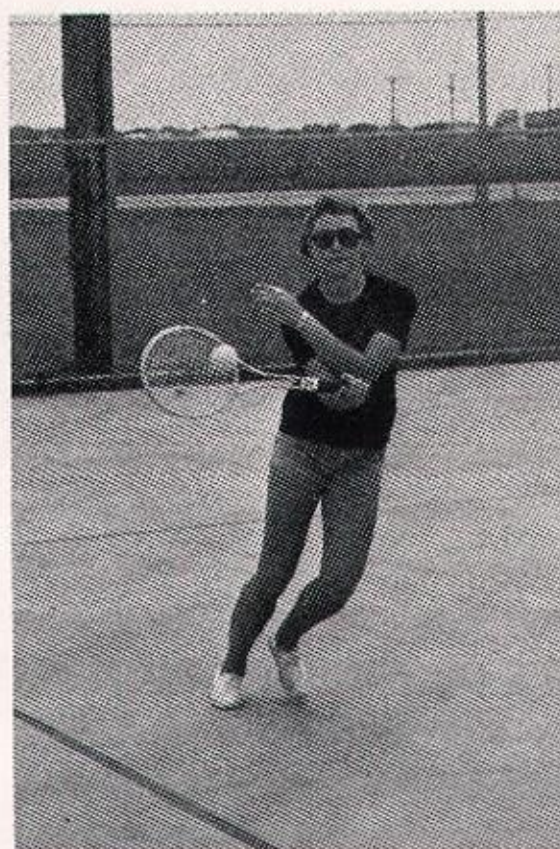

Coach Mary Jane Strnadel has made the tennis program at EHS an exciting, involved program. The entire community has a new interest in tennis. The team competed in numerous matches and practice sets. In the Ganado Tournament the team brought home the overall trophy. Girls brought home first place; guys second (or vice-versa). At district Timmy Aimone lost to the district winner as did Janda Edwards in the early rounds. Charmi Sappington and Anna Holloway advanced to the semi finals in district doubles. Due to technical difficulties the team picture did not turn out. We have included individual pictures of those students we have. We have tried to name the rest.

VARSITY BASEBALL

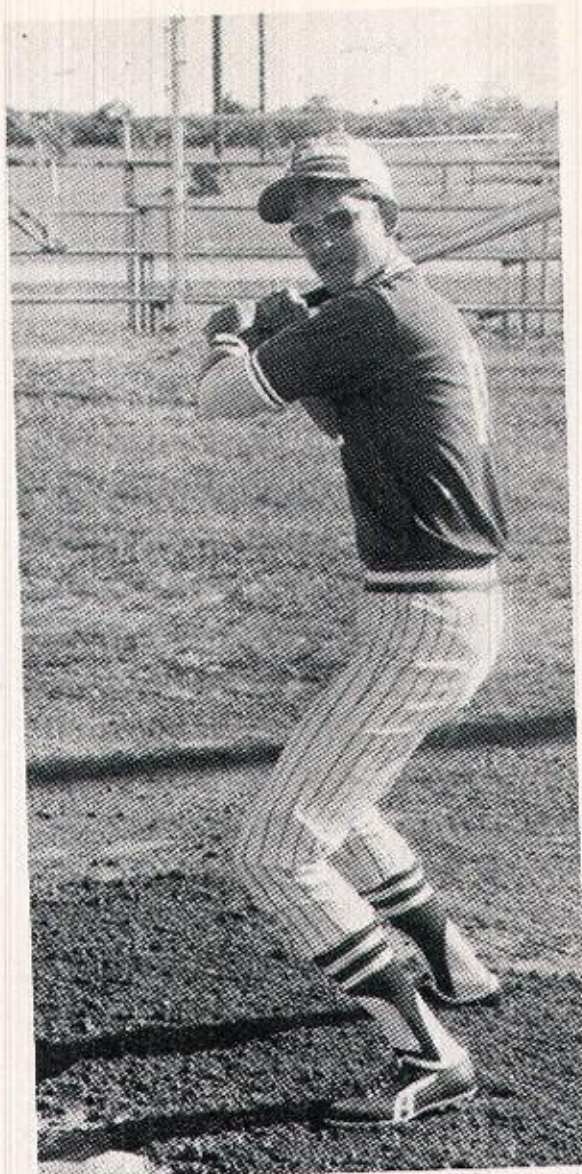

Coach Richard Beck took the Varsity baseball team a few days before the first game. Coach and the Cowboys had a good season. The games were well attended by faithful fans who enjoyed the exciting moments of spectacular catches, grand slam home runs, disagreement with officials and watching to see where the foul balls landed. Rex Knopp did most of the Cowboys Varsity pitching.

The J.V. and Coach Adams played a short but exciting season also.
